

Year 4 Spelling-Unit 7-Tested Friday 26th January

Spelling Pattern = Words ending with -ous

Group 1

Spelling	Meaning
serious	A person who is not joking or intended to be funny.
mountainous	A place which has many mountains.
dangerous	Something able to or likely to cause harm or injury.
courageous	A person who is brave and shows courage.
outrageous	Used to describe something or someone that is shocking because they are unusual humorous	Describes something that is funny or makes you laugh.
curious	Someone who interested in learning about people or things around them.
anxious	A person who is worried or nervous.
obvious	Something that is easy to read or understand.
glamorous	Describes something that is attractive in an exciting way.
tremendous	Describes something that is very good enormous	Very large in size, quantity, or extent.

Year 4 Spelling-Unit 7-Tested Friday 26th January

Spelling Pattern = Words ending with -ous

Group 2

Spelling	Meaning
serious	A person who is not joking or intended to be funny.
mountainous	A place which has many mountains.
dangerous	Something able to or likely to cause harm or injury.
courageous	A person who is brave and shows courage.
outrageous	Used to describe something or someone that is shocking because they are unusual
curious	Someone who interested in learning about people or things around them.
anxious	A person who is worried or nervous.
obvious	Something that is easy to read or understand.
enormous	Very large in size, quantity, or extent.
glamorous	Describes something that is attractive in an exciting way.

Year 4 Spelling-Unit 7-Tested Friday 26th January

Spelling Pattern = Words ending with -ous

Group 3

Spelling	Meaning
serious	A person who is not joking or intended to be funny.
mountainous	A place which has many mountains.
dangerous	Something able to or likely to cause harm or injury.
enormous	Very large in size, quantity, or extent.
curious	Someone who interested in learning about people or things around them.
courageous	A person who is brave and shows courage.
outrageous	Used to describe something or someone that is shocking because they are unusual