

Year 4 Spelling-Unit 9-Tested Friday 9th March

Spelling Pattern = Words ending with zhun spelt -sion

Group 1

Spelling	Meaning
confusion	Uncertainty of what is happening or required.
division	Splitting into equal parts or groups.
revision	The act or revising or editing something.
explosion	Shattering or blowing apart of something.
decision	A choice that is made after thinking about the possibilities.
invasion	An occasion when a large number of people enter a country unwanted.
vision	Being able to see.
erosion	The process of eroding by water or wind.
persuasion	The action or process of persuading someone to do or believe something.
collision	When one or two objects hit each other.
television	A device for watching programmes.
occasion	A particular event.

Year 4 Spelling-Unit 9-Tested Friday 9th March

Spelling Pattern = Words ending with zhun spelt -sion

Group 2

Spelling	Meaning
confusion	Uncertainty of what is happening or required.
division	Splitting into equal parts or groups.
revision	The act or revising or editing something.
explosion	Shattering or blowing apart of something.
decision	A choice that is made after thinking about the possibilities.
invasion	An occasion when a large number of people enter a country unwanted.
vision	Being able to see.
erosion	The process of eroding by water or wind.
persuasion	The action or process of persuading someone to do or believe something.
collision	When one or two objects hit each other.

Year 4 Spelling-Unit 9-Tested Friday 9th March

Spelling Pattern = Words ending with zhun spelt -sion

Group 3

Spelling	Meaning
confusion	Uncertainty of what is happening or required.
division	Splitting into equal parts or groups.
vision	Being able to see.
erosion	The process of eroding by water or wind.
invasion	An occasion when a large number of people enter a country unwanted.
explosion	Shattering or blowing a part of something.